Name: Ahmed Ayman Ahmed Mahmoud

Project: Veterinary Center System Management

- The medical center consists of one department, which is veterinary department.
- This department have several employees.
- Every employee has information like name, id, gender, birthday, phone number, address and E-mail.
- Adding salary and bonus to employees monthly.
- The information of the customers is name, ID which is consist of specific code the center will give to him to save his information, gender, address, phone number.
- We will store the information about customer`s pet.
  The information about customer`s pet is type, previous diseases, the last time the animal was vaccination and previous behaviors of the animal to determine the appropriate treatment for him.